Biography

Triple Double Band is a collection of creative songwriters who piece together an eclectic mix of popular genres to create a colorful sound with a positive message for humanity. Using three part vocal harmonies, dance inducing rhythms and driving complex melodies, they produce soul inspiring upbeat feel good rock.

The group partakes in a collaborative and democratic approach to songwriting, which results in compositions that reveal shades of different styles ranging from jazz to reggae to hip-hop. The band combines emotive singing with poetic and catchy lyrics that encourage tangible human growth through love, harmony and unity tinged by the surreal and the fantastic.

Triple Double Band is fronted by brothers Jimi (Guitar) and Tom (Drums) Cracovaner, who have built a musical rapport after many years of playing together. With talented bass player Rip Nolan, creative pianist Alex Sandweiss and expressive saxophonist Aran Canally, the band strives to entertain and bring their musical art to audiences for the purpose of creating joy and excitement. Their intense live shows are full of energetic audience interaction and intricate solos, and reflect the band's belief in the power of music as a means of spiritual communication.

Press Highlights

"Tucson's Triple Double Band creates sunny-day, reggae-tinged rock."
– Arizona Daily Star

"Dot My Eighths is a tasty, 12-song smorgasbord of toe-tapping musical styles..."
Tucson Weekly

"Dot My Eighths" soothes one's soul much like Bob Marley's music did.
Arizona Daily Wildcat

"The Triple Double Band likes to do things the old school way; in other words they rely on well-written songs and musicianship instead of studio tricks and that commitment translates to every song on this fun party platter."
Antimusic.com

"Dot My Eighths is soaked with bright, bouncy soundscapes, just in time for beer-sipping at outdoor barbecues."
Arizona Daily Star

"Triple Double slam dunks on their new album, Dot My Eighths."
Tucson Citizen

"But rest assured that the (five) of them don't just stand on stage and try to look cool; they don't need to. Their live shows are a testament to the pride they take in their music."
– Arizona Daily Wildcat

"Triple Double Band's second album, Five Twenty (Fire City), is indeed a pleasing merger of reggae and blues with a feel-good flair."
– Tucson Weekly
